IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.55902 of 2007
MD. REYAJUDDIN & ORS.
Versus
THE STATE OF BIHAR

03/ 05.05.2008 Heard.

The application of the petitioner no.1 for grant of anticipatory bail is rejected, inasmuch as he has been arrested. Petitioner no.2 is the step mother-in-law of the complainant. Petitioner no.3 is the father-in-law of the complainant. Complainant and petitioner no.1 were married 16 years back. They live in Delhi. Petitioners no.2 and 3 live in the District of Sheikhpura, Bihar. The allegation of the complainant is that the petitioners have been pressurizing her to transfer the flat of the complainant situate in Delhi. According to petitioners no.2 and 3, they did not live with the complainant and her husband. According to the petitioners no.2 and 3 they never demanded of the complainant transfer of the flat belonging to the complainant either in their favour or in favour of the petitioner no.1. In an affidavit, they have stated that they would never do so also in future. That being the position, a case for grant of anticipatory bail has been made out.
